

Job Title: Contract Therapist

Job Type: 1099 Contract

Position Overview:

DFI is seeking to hire Contract Therapists in response to DFI's growing client waitlist and our community's need for affordable mental health services. This opportunity will appeal to anyone seeking supervised hours toward licensure, looking to build a private practice, looking to plug into a community and network of therapists, and/or anyone with a commitment to providing sliding scale services. Contract Therapists are expected to see a minimum of 4 DFI clients each week. Therapy sessions are scheduled by the Contract Therapist and may take place on-site at DFI's clinic or virtually via Teletherapy. Contract Therapists receive one hour of individual supervision each month. The agreement is for a 12 month period with the opportunity to renew.

Compensation & Benefits:

- Compensation of $60 per 50-minute client session
- Free monthly individual supervision with a DFI supervisor
- Use of DFI's therapy rooms for DFI clients (and/or access to Theranest for Teletherapy)
- Immediate access to referrals from DFI's client waitlist
- The option of discounted office space at DFI to see private practice clients

Skills & Qualifications:

- Must have prior training in Marriage and Family Therapy and clinical experience practicing systemically and relationally
- Must be registered with DORA and the state of Colorado as a licensed clinician or licensure candidate (e.g.: LPCC, LSW, MTFC)
- Must furnish proof of liability insurance that meet minimum requirements (DFI will not provide insurance)
- Current DFI students are not eligible to apply.

About Denver Family Institute

Denver Family Institute (DFI) is a nonprofit organization that exists to strengthen relationships in our community through quality marriage and family therapy (MFT) training and services. The provision and continuous improvement of these services is the core mission of DFI. To achieve this mission, we provide marriage and family therapy training, consultation to community agencies, and relational therapy to families, couples, and individuals regardless of income. Our focus is on strength-based, systemic therapy, rooted in multicultural, social justice, and ethical principles and practices congruent with the values of our accrediting body and the Mission of the American Association of Marriage and Family Therapy.

At Denver Family Institute, we recognize the central importance of relationships in the well being of individuals, couples, families, and communities. Additionally, we honor the diversity in relationships and of individuals in our world. We welcome students, faculty and clients from all cultures, lifestyles, and backgrounds. We have a clear non-discrimination policy and commitment to social justice in our program. Denver Family Institute was established in 1982 and is a COAMFTE accredited program.

To Apply:

Prospective candidates must submit the following to be considered for the position:

- Letter of interest
- Resume
- List of 2-3 references (email address and telephone number), one of whom is/was an immediate supervisor who has firsthand knowledge of applicant's professional abilities (references will not be contacted without prior notification to candidates).

Applications should be emailed to Emily Dorn at emilydorn@denverfamilyinstitute.org